Celebrations are really important for us.
Everyone, from the smallest part of society to the whole, cares about gathering and doing something together.
We are a society that likes to have fun, no lie. We can find something for celebrating and dancing together.

We come together and have fun together whenever we get the chance. Especially national holidays.. I don't know how to explain that feeling. We celebrate our all victories in the war space. The souls, labors and sacrifices our ancestors are honored.

Apart from the days we celebrate throughout the country, we have celebrations that vary from province to province. Religion holidays, traditional festivals, food festivals, fashion weeks, international festivals, the matches we won, openings, we celebrate everything with music and dance.
